

grades the mind, and turns man into a beast.

It has no conscience—no feelings of humanity—it sympathizes with none, but seizes on the moment of misfortune to blind its victims and destroy them. It brings disease where health, peace and happiness reigned, and from its loathsome wings it drops the mildew of sin and the blight of death.

It murders, burns and ravages without mercy, it fills our almshouses with paupers, our penitentiaries with criminals, our work-houses with vagabonds, our streets with filth, misery and pollution and the world with the bitter tears of sorrow.

What crime is there that it has not superinduced?

Henceforth and forever, we are its sworn enemy—we shall wage against it a war of extermination—we shall deal it the deadliest blows we can inflict, and give it no time to Parley nor make terms of peace—nothing but total extinction, utter and complete annihilation will satisfy us—we were born with a disgust for it that has ripened with our years into the deadliest hatred, and now, once more we say, "war to the knife!"—Emporium

VENERABLE LADIES.—The wives of men of genius often survive their husbands many years, even though the latter attain a venerable age. Within two or three weeks, says a Philadelphia journal, we have read of the death of the widow of Timothy Dwight, and the papers recently recorded the departure of the widow of Gilbert Stuart, the celebrated painter. It is not long since the death of the wife of Burns; and his "Highland Mary"—the mother of the eminent Professor Renwick—we have seen within a few years in the streets of New York, where she is, perhaps, yet living. The wives of Byron, Shelley, Napoleon, and other great Europeans, are still alive; and the venerable companions of Hamilton and Madison remind visitors of our commercial and political capitals of the great statesmen who divided betwixt themselves and their country their affections.

BRUNKENNESS DEFINED.

We preserve the following definition, from an old magazine, for the benefit of posterity:

DRUNK. a [from drink]. Over the bay, half seas over, hot, high, corned, cut, cocked, half-cooked, shaved, disguised, jammed, damaged, sleepy, tired, snuffy, whipped, just so, breezy, smoky, top-heavy, fuddled, groggy, tipsy, smashed, swipy, shewed, crank, salted down, how dare ye, on the lee lurch, all sails set, three sheets in the wind, well under way, speeding, battered, blowing, boozy, sawed, snubbed, bruised, screwed, stewed, soaked, comfortable, stimulated, jugged, steamed, tangled, legged, haw-eyed, phlegm-cut, fogmatic, blue-eyed, a passenger in the Cape Ann stage, a stricken, boozy, all over the bay, faint, shot in the neck, bamboozled, weak jointed, sick, used up.

AN UNDENIABLE TRUTH.—At the World's Convention Mr. Robert Owen offered a series of resolutions, among which we observe the following, and we dox to dispute its successfuly:

"Resolved,—That the human race are born without their knowledge and consent."

Our DEVIL, (says an exchange paper) having fallen a victim to the "tender passion," thus pathetically laments the absence of his "own true love."

I think of thee, oh, Sally, dear,
Ven I see settin up the types,
And ven I think you're far away,
From my eyes a tear I wipe.

Oh, Sally, dear, vot shall I do?
I'm sick of this life here!
If you're not back here werry soon,
In my heart I'll stik a knife!

PETERSON'S LADIES' National Magazine.
MAGNIFICENT VOLUME FOR 1845.

EDITED BY MRS. ANN S. STEPHENS.

The Ladies' National Magazine, is now so well established and so favorably known, that by general consent of the newspaper press, it is placed at the

HEAD OF THE LADIES' BOOKS.

Its literature, like those of the three dollar Magazines, are all original, and from the most celebrated American writers of both sexes. The contributions to this periodical are a constant proof of the taste, and ability of our beloved countrywomen. No other magazine is so exclusively a mirror of their minds, or is so generally supported by them. The contents are of every variety, and while usually of the lighter kind, do not preclude the insertion of papers of more value. Filled alike to the bosom and the freize, the "Ladies National," presents monthly an agreeable variety of domestic sketches, tales of fashionable life, romances of history, poems, critical notices of living authors, new receipts for the house-keeper, directions for fashionable embroidery, descriptions of the fashions, gossip of our eastern metropolis, musical intelligence, &c., &c., comprised in a short, and that a lady would wish to know, of objects of interest respiring during the month.

These contents, instead of being, like those of the other two dollar magazines, made up chiefly by selections from old newspapers and other second hand sources, are written expressly for us; so that our

CONTENTS ARE ALL ORIGINAL.

As a guarantee of the style in which the literature is conducted, the publisher has placed the editorial charge of the magazine in the hands of Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, acknowledged by all critics to be, the best magazine writer in the world. Those who have read her thrilling stories of "Alice Copely," "Madina Gray," "Anna Taylor," and "Clara," need no proof of her exalted genius. She will be assisted by the strongest corps of contributors ever yet arrayed in the constant support of any ladies' Magazine. At the head of this list is Mrs. Lydia H. Sigourney, who will, hereafter, be a regular contributor, both in poetry and prose. She will be assisted by Mrs. E. F. Ellett, Mrs. A. M. F. Annan, Mrs. E. S. Osgood, Mrs. L. J. Pelton, Mrs. M. S. Leon Loud, Mrs. Ann S. Stephens, Mrs. P. W. B. Coothers, Mrs. Amelia Welby, Mrs. C. Lee Hunt, Mrs. Selu Smith, &c., &c., &c. Author of "Marriage of Convenience" Miss M. L. Lawson, Mrs. Caroline Oane, Miss Mary Davenport, Miss Ellen Ashton, &c.

During the ensuing year, a new feature will be introduced, in the publication of a series of

TALES OF AMERICAN HISTORY.

Illustrative of the manners and stirring incidents of different periods in our country's history. The first of these, a story of the revolution, from the capture of "The Arrow of God" in the "Last Hope" will appear in January, and will be followed up by articles of equal interest, from H. W. Herbert, and others of our best writers. Theatrical portraits of female poets will still be continued, and stories of a domestic character, from the well known pen of Mrs. Anna, F. E. F., and Ellen Ashton, will occasionally appear.

Gallery of Pictures.—In order that the pictorial department may stand first in the country, the publisher intends publishing, in January and February, two superb premium pictures, far superior to any yet issued in the magazines. The first:

A MEZZOTINT BY SARTIN.

will appear in January, and has confessedly never been equaled by that inimitable artist. The second, to appear in February, is the first of a series of great historical pictures, which will give a national character to his work—the publisher has projected. These are intended to illustrate great events in American annals, especially those in which women figured. The first is a MEZZOTINT OF WASHINGTON AT HIS!

Engraved from a picture never before made public. This feature will make the book unequalled, and those who wish to secure the whole series must send their money early. We here state, what is undeniable, that during 1844, we published MEZZOTINTS OF WASHINGTON AND HIS RIVAL, and continue to do so for 1845. Those who subscribe to the "National," will get unequalled advantages over those who do not. For November, December, January and February, we already have issued, or intend to issue, an unbroken series of these plates. Who else has done, or can be the worse?

Gallery of Beauty.

The Gallery of American Beauty will be a feature of this book, in which will constantly appear portraits of the most beautiful of the sex. Another characteristic will be

AMERICAN LANDSCAPES.

The other illustrations shall be executed by distinguished artists, for picturesque beauty or for historical associations.

The other illustrations shall be executed by the best American Artists, and be in every variety and style, viz: Line and Stipple Engravings; Colored Flowers and Birds; Lace Work and Embroidery; Pictures executed in Tints, Quilts, &c., &c.

In short every variety of embellishments, executed by the best artists, shall continue to grace our book. We shall be the first to seize the novelties of the day!

PARIS FASHIONS IN ADVANCE.

As elegance and economy in dress are equally desirable, we offer great inducements to country readers, in our monthly descriptions of the fashions, accompanied by our colored plate, which we give at least two months in advance of every contemporary, being enabled to do this from correspondents in London and Paris. So completely have we outstripped all rivalry in this point that the other magazines now only occasionally furnish the fashions. But as long as Paris in dress is desirable, patterns of the latest costumes will be indispensable to the sex, in order to keep the run of the changes in dress. But in order that other illustrations may not have to give place to them, we shall publish

Our Fashion Plates Extra

That is we shall give as many embellishments as any other two dollar magazine and the fashion plates besides!

And in order that our lady subscribers may be acquainted with the novelties of the day, we shall publish, as soon as they come out, in our "House Department," new receipts in Cookery, new styles in Embroidery, new patterns for Lace Work &c., &c.

THE TERMS.—The Cash system adopted and maintained by the publisher, enables him to offer a Magazine, in every respect equal to the old three dollar magazine, at one-third less cost. This price of Peterson's National is therefore only TWO DOLLARS per annum, cash, in advance.

TO CLUBS.—In order to facilitate remittances, from post-towns where there is no local agent, the publisher offers the following terms to persons disposed to club, viz:

1 copy $2.00 per annum
3 copies $5.00 per annum
8 copies $10.00 per annum
17 copies $19.00 per annum

For $5.00 we will send one copy of the Saturday Courier and two copies of the "National."

This money must be current funds, and sent post paid in advance.

PREMIUMS.

To every Postmaster, or other person getting up a club, we will send one annual for 1845, a copy of the new novels! For every $2.00 subscription we will send, if required, a new novel. Or for every Club of 17, or two Clubs of 8, or for Clubs of 3, we will send a copy of the Magazine gratis for one year.

AT RULES, the 1. Monday of August 1845.

Samuel Jones Jr. }
265 rs.
John Allison et al }

Upon opening the matters of this Bill, it appearing to the satisfaction of the court, that Samuel Arbuckle, Thomas G. Allison, William A. Williams, John Allison, Alexander H. Poston, John H. Poston, and William H. Stodtratt defendants, thereto, are not inhabitants of the State of Mississippi, but reside beyond the limits thereof, so that the ordinary process of this court cannot be served on them, and that the heirs of Josiah Gillespie dec'd, and Jabez Butler dec'd, defendants thereto, are unknown to the complainants:—Therefore it is ordered that unless the said Samuel Arbuckle, Thomas G. Allison, William A. Williams, John Allison, Alexander H. Poston, John H. Poston, William H. Stodtratt, and the unknown heirs of the said Josiah Gillespie and Jabez Butler dec'd, appear before the Vice Chancellor, at the court room in Holly Springs, on the first Monday of January next, and plead, answer or demur to complainant's Bill, the several allegations thereof, as to them, will be taken for confessed, and such order and decree made thereon as shall appear equitable and just.

And it is further ordered that a copy of this order be inserted in "The Lynx," a newspaper published in the town of Panola, Mississippi, once a week for two months, successively.

JAMES C. ALDERSON, Clerk.

ABSTRACT OF BILL.

Charges. That on the 11th December 1839, the firm of Talbot Jones & co., consisting of John Jones, since dec'd, and complainant, recovered a judgment in the United States District Court, for the Northern District of Mississippi, against defendant John Allison for $674 49-100 debt and damages besides costs.

That about the 16th October, only a few weeks, prior to the recovery of said judgment, said Allison, fraudulently, to evade the execution of the same, made an assignment by a pretended deed of trust, to Asa Love, of all the remaining property therein named, which he had previously, to effect the same object, smuggled off and conveyed to Texas, the said property to be made for the benefit of certain real or pretended creditors therein named, that among other debts, named and pretended to be secured by said deed, is one mentioned as being due to the Mississippi Union Bank for $2000 upon a note in which the said Allison & John Rayburn, are the securities only for Samuel A. Gillespie who is principal, that the intention of said Allison apparently upon the face of said deed, so far as regards that note, is not to secure the payment of the same to said Bank, but not to have said Rayburn molested in any way on account thereof, that there was no consideration moving from said Rayburn to said Allison, and that said deed if valid in other respects, has no binding force, so far as regards said debt of $2000, that the principal in said note is so'ven, and amply able to pay said debt if not already due, that said Rayburn is exposed to no danger of molestation, having been for several years wholly insolvent, many of the other debts mentioned in said deed, have been since the execution thereof paid off, that Josiah Gillespie, one of the witnesses to said deed, is one of the creditors therein named, that proof of said deed was made by the witnesses, there being but one other besides said Gillespie, that the certificate of proof in other respects, is not such as the statute requires for admission to record, that said deed was improperly admitted to record and operates as no bar to the lien of said Judgment, upon the property therein named, that portion of the property pretended to be conveyed by said deed is a section of land therein described, having about 160 acres cleared with valuable improvements thereon, defendant Love the Trustee, came immediately into possession thereof, and has occupied and enjoyed the same ever since the execution of said deed, under an agreement to pay rent therefor, at the rate of $3 50 per acre, that he also took possession of all the personal property in said deed specified, together with all the crop of the crop of the year 1839, raised by said Allison, which he was to dispose of and account for as trustee, that the whole amount of debts mentioned in said deed, besides that of $2000, to the Mississippi Union Bank is $1400 and $15 00, some of which are already paid, that it was not the honest and bona fide intention of said Allison, to secure the payment of the debts, mentioned in said deed, but to delay, hinder and defraud other just creditors one of whom is complainant.

PRAYER. That said deed of trust, be decreed to be null and void of no effect and set aside, so that complainant with all other creditors may stand upon an equal footing, and his judgment have its unobstructed course, but if it should appear that said deed is not fraudulent, as to the rights of complainant, nor otherwise defective, and that the same ought to have its full force and effect, whether as to all the debts therein named, or whether only as to all except said $2000, then that said Love Trustee, be decreed to execute said trust, by selling all of said property remaining unclaimed including said land and liquidate and discharge said debts, with the proceeds of said sale, and pay any balance that may be left, to satisfaction of complainant's judgment and for general relief.

JAMES C. ALDERSON, Clerk.
